

HARVEST HOUSE

2023 January & February Newsletter

WHO WE SERVED

Harvest House had the privilege of serving Guam's foster community in January and February by opening our doors to foster families, shelters, CPS, emergency placements, potential foster families, and numerous donors.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Foster Mom Book Club - Each Friday, moms have been able to meet and discuss chapters in Foster The Family: a book of encouragement, hope, and practical help for the Christian Foster Parent

SS Beauty Bar Salon Day - Foster families were invited to the salon for a day of haircuts and pampering. Thank you, SS Beauty Bar for making our families feel beautiful inside and out.

TBRI Support Meeting - Amanda Tanton spoke to our foster families about our foster children's sleep regression by reminding us to connect with our children and ensure they feel safe.

Oven Lovin' Cake Class - Michelle Lewis hosted a cake decorating class for our foster moms and also helped provide birthday cakes for over 50 foster children in the past year! Thank you, Oven Lovin' for blessing foster families and bringing smiles to their children's faces.

VOLUNTEERS

Due to natural damage over the last several years, the Harvest House playground was ready to be retired. We are grateful for our volunteers from the 78th Signal Battalion RHN-Guam who sacrificed a Saturday in January to help us take down the old playground. Now our yard is cleared and ready for a new, safe playground for foster families to enjoy and play on. We hope to collect enough funds next month to purchase a new one.
